Statement of Financial Responsibility

I understand that registration constitutes a financial obligation to pay tuition and fees for which I am liable. I understand that my financial obligations are due by the semester due date. Information regarding the semester due date and payment options is available at: www.meredith.edu/acct.

- I am responsible for reading and understanding the current Tuition Refund Schedule policy of the College.
- I understand it is my responsibility to withdraw if I decide not to attend. Tuition adjustments will be made in accordance with the current Tuition Refund Schedule and are based on the date the student officially notifies the College of withdrawal.
- Permission to cancel enrollment or withdraw from class does not constitute forgiveness by Meredith College of my financial obligation.
- Students whose accounts are not paid by the established semester deadlines may be subject to course cancellation.
- Students with unpaid account balances will be placed on Financial Hold by the Accounting Office and become ineligible for further course registration. Transcripts will not be released until the student account is paid in full.

Non-degree students wishing to become degree seeking candidates must formally apply for admission and meet regular admission requirements to the College. Completion of non-degree coursework does not guarantee admission to the College.
