

Wonderland for the students. Students are asked to identify their elaborately costumed instructors who act out this literary fantasy. The mixers are scheduled for spring semester of 2028 and are open to undergraduate and graduate students only.

A tradition begun in 2003 through the cooperation of the Divisions of Academic and College Program Celebrating Student Achievement day is typically held in early April. This day recognizes research, leadership and academic awards, music and art performances, and a variety of other forms of achievement. Families are invited to join in the celebration. Students have regular classes on this day as it is designated to celebrate all types of student achievement across the college.

In the fall, each undergraduate class presents for competition a series of productions including skits, songs, and dances, all of which are related thematically. The four classes are judged on these

Arts series include:

- o Meredith Performs Series Student theater, music, and dance productions, as well as
- o Recitals Meredith students, faculty, and guests perform in concert.
- o Art Exhibits Student art majors and other artists display their works at the galleries in Johnson Hall and Gaeley-Dymrick Art Center, as well as other campus locations.
- o Lectures Regionally and nationally acclaimed proponents of the arts speak on campus.
- o See the Cultural Arts Calendar (<https://www.meredith.edu/culturalarts>)
